CONCORD MEDIATION CENTER EXPANDS TO INCREASE ACCESS TO SERVICES IN SARPY COUNTY

(November 7, 2017 – Omaha, NE) - Concord Mediation Center is opening a new office in Sarpy County. Conveniently located near the Sarpy County courthouse, the new office is at 1223 Golden Gate Drive in Papillion. A Grand Opening and Open House, including a ribbon cutting by the Sarpy County Chamber, is scheduled for Wednesday, November 29, from 4 p.m. to 6 p.m. The ribbon cutting ceremony is slated for 4:30 p.m.

The new office, which is an addition to Concord Mediation Center's current offices at 4225 North 90th Street in Omaha, will better serve clients who live and work in Sarpy County.

For nearly 20 years, Concord Mediation Center has provided people in Douglas and Sarpy Counties with innovative, affordable and cooperative ways to resolve differences and transform relationships. The agency is one of six centers in the state approved by Nebraska's Supreme Court's Office of Dispute Resolution.

Each year, this non-profit agency helps people from a wide variety of backgrounds. Concord Mediation Center is committed to providing services regardless of a client's ability to pay.

- more -

Concord Mediation Center works with:

- families experiencing the crisis of divorce to reach peaceful custody and parenting agreements;
- juvenile offenders, to see the harm caused by their crimes, rebuild trust and reduce recidivism;
- neighbors facing property disputes in small claims court;
- parents and their children who are involved in the child welfare system;
- companies challenged with internal employee disputes, learning new ways to communicate;
- parents who have concerns regarding their special needs child's instructional path;
- relatives navigating the care of their elders.

Mediation is a process in which a neutral third party incorporates skills and techniques to improve the dialogue between two or more parties involved in a conflict. Mediation provides people who find themselves in conflict an opportunity to understand each other's perspective and discover creative solutions.
